

Online Bible Classes

with the British Bible School

For twelve weeks commencing 14th September 2020

Mondays at 8.00 pm

The Book of Psalms

For 3,000 years the Psalms have given hope in times of despair, comfort in times of grief, and joy in times of celebration. The whole range of human emotions and experiences find expression in the Psalms. In this series we are seeking a greater appreciation of the Psalms by understanding the characteristics of Hebrew poetry, the different genres of the Psalms, and their enduring value in our times of devotion and worship of God.

Presenter: John Griffiths

Tuesdays at 8.00 pm

1st Corinthians

This is a letter that sheds a great deal of light on the nature and conduct of early Christian assemblies, addressing a wide range of subjects. Opening with Paul's thanksgiving to God for his grace to the Corinthians, he appeals to them to be united as one in Christ. From problems of sexual immorality and lawsuits against each other, to teaching on spiritual gifts and resurrection, this is a challenging letter for our time, as it was for the original readers.

Presenter: Jack Paton

Thursdays at 8.00 pm

Hebrews

One of the most significant books of the New Testament Scriptures in helping us understand the work of Christ in the context of the calling of Israel. Here we take a look at arguments presented for the supremacy of Christ which are as relevant today as when first written. We begin to explore such matters as the priesthood of Jesus and the nature of his new covenant, meeting the enigmatic Melchizedek along the way.

Presenter: Patrick Boyns

