Proclaiming the Unknown God

When Paul was in Athens he saw an altar dedicated 'To an unknown God.' He then told the people of Athens, "What you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you."

Whilst there is much about God that remains beyond our comprehension, there are many things that we can know. In this series of classes we shall be exploring God's word to discover some of the wonderful things that he has made known to us about his character and nature.

More than Happiness

The circumstances surrounding the writing of Paul's letter to the Philippians, along with the context of his most personal relationship with the disciples in Philippi bring to life much of what we find in this delightful New Testament book.

We will be exploring the text of this joy-filled letter with a view to better understanding the nature of real joy in Christ. This is a joy that is not dependent upon our circumstances, and one which is certainly much more than mere happiness.

Bible Quiz Time!

Some light-hearted, educational, entertainment!

This really is for everyone – nothing too testing (we promise!).

You might want to have a pen and paper handy - plus a box of choccies to award yourself if you happen to win – or even if you don't. We'd love to present these personally, but under the circumstances this is a little tricky ...

For the current period we will hold this every first Friday.
